“ Sweet little Angel Baby Elijah!

You were loved from the beginning and you will be loved for all eternity. What a beautiful little baby God created and even in your brief time on earth you stole my heart and the heart of so many others. With much sadness in my heart but with the joy of expectancy to see you again in heaven gives me comfort. I will look up at the beautiful blue sky or the bright stars at night and know you're up there looking down on your mommy and daddy with the deepest kind of love possible. You will always be the most beautiful and brightest star in my eyes and the universe. I love you Elijah and great-grandpa and me will see you soon!

With deep love and affection, great-grandma Hughes

“ I'm your 2nd cousin buddy and I was so excited to meet you however, that'll have to wait just a little longer till we all meet in heaven one day. I hope you're up there playing around with cars and trucks. You were just the cutest little peanut. Just know that your mommy and daddy loves you forever and never ever forget you.

“ My grandson, From the minute I was made aware of your existence in your mothers womb, i was proud of you, proud of your parents. I knew you would be loved and cared for with the love any child, grandchild, brother, sister and human so deserves. You fought to stay as long as you could. God already had a place waiting for you where no pain or discomfort could touch you. I pray that you took all the love that you brought into this world and may it amplify in heaven. I have no doubt that one day I will see you and immediately recognize you. I love you Elijah, may you Rest in peace
