

Michael Sean Collins

June 30, 1970 - June 1, 2014

Michael Sean Collins, 43, of The Colony, TX passed away Sunday, June 1, 2014. Michael was born June 30, 1970 in Dallas, TX to Jim P. Bishop and Gayle (Hicks) Thompson. He grew up primarily in the Austin, TX area. He also spent time in Las Cruces, NM. Michael loved life and was passionate about life and wanted to experience life. Michael completed mortuary school while in his mid-twenties. He worked in the floral industry and developed quite a talent for creating floral arrangements. He also worked at New Horizons computer training. Michael worked in the perfume industry during his twenties and thirties. Michael always had a strong entrepreneur spirit and opened his first business when he was 10, a bicycle repair shop out of his childhood garage. His paper sign read "Mike's Bike Repair" and was taped to the back door. He was self-employed working in finance at the time of his death. Michael's dream was to be able to dive a ship wreck or go on a treasure hunt. Please know that for Michael it wasn't about the financial gain but was for the "hunt." Michael loved the water, plants and animals, even having a pretty large pet iguana. Always a people person and never meeting a stranger and was always considerate and generous to others, Mike engaged people easily and readily. Michael loved family and cherished time spent with family. He, like his Dad, loved his sweet tea with a LOT of extra ice and often time would have an extra glass of ice for his tea. Michael loved the outdoors. He also possessed a unique sense for fashion and was always conscious of styles and trends, loved the bling shirts with bright colors. Mike was meticulous about his house and how things were organized. Mike valued saving money and has been known to drive miles out of the way to save 2cents on a gallon of gas. Michael never let failure slow him down and always looked forward to "what was next", professionally and personally. He was a can do type of person. He loved his "toys" especially cars and always sought the latest and greatest new gadget. Michael is survived by his fiancée, Erin Haydel of The Colony, TX; father, Jim Bishop of Scottsdale, AZ; mother, Gayle Thompson of San Antonio, TX; adopted mother, Dorothy Collins of Stephenville, TX. Also surviving is one daughter, Camry Collins of Mesquite, TX; brother, Jim Watland of Pilot Point, TX; step-brother, Matthew Shane Knapp of Minneapolis, MN; and his paternal grandmother, Patricia R. Bishop of Mesa, AZ. The family will host visitation for Michael, Saturday, June 7, 2014 beginning at 1:00 PM at Slay Memorial Funeral Center in Aubrey, TX with the funeral service will following at 2:00 PM. On-line condolences may be made at <http://www.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com>. Service arrangements are under the direction of Terri Slay and Slay Memorial Funeral Center in Aubrey, TX.

“ We met Mike less than a year ago. In that short time we always looked forward to being with Mike and Erin. Many times we would go out of our way just to see them. Mike was always ready with a good laugh and could keep things in perspective. Him and I have so many similarities, from our age, to our daughters age, and of course I loved his fiancé's name! You will be truly missed. In some regards I feel like I was robbed of all the time I knew we would start to spend together and yet I value and treasure what we did get.

“ Mike, Stephanie and I will forever be grateful for the time we spent together with you and Erin. You were always inviting and welcomed us with open arms. You truly cared about your family and friends and would always be available if we needed someone to talk with. When weeks would go by without speaking, you were always reaching out, sending texts, checking up on us, asking how we were, what we did over the weekend, etc. We will cherish the conversations and the wonderful memories we experienced with you. Mike, you will be greatly missed my friend but never forgotten.

“ I feel a warmth around me like your presence is so near, And I close my eyes to visualize your face when you were here, I endure the times we spent together and they are locked inside my heart, For as long as I have those memories we will never be apart, Even though we cannot speak anymore my voice is always there, Because every night before I sleep I have you in my prayer. I will truly miss my friend, the long lunches (with drinks of course) and the hours of conversations about life, love, yesterdays and tomorrows. Until I see you again my friend I will hold your smile in my heart.

“ I never knew Mike, I knew him as the guy with the Tonka truck who lives down the street from my sister. I thought he must have a great sense of humor, and just the other week I was visiting and saw him hosing off the boat squirting his fiancée with the hose when she was working in the yard. My heartfelt condolences go out to you all, even as a stranger, he brought a smile to my face.
