

Mr. Alexander Uriah Rogers

May 14, 2000 - May 10, 2026

Alexander Uriah Rogers was born on Mother's Day, May 14, 2000, and passed away on Mother's Day, May 10, 2026. He is survived by his mother Adrienne Rogers [stepfather Kennard Love] of DeSoto TX, father Timothy Rogers of Dallas TX, sister Makayla Rogers of Little Elm TX, brothers Timothy Rogers Jr. and Tevon Rogers of Tulsa OK, grandma Pattie Cleaver of Arlington TX, grandfather Rodger Harper of Garland TX, aunt Tomiko Morris of Mansfield TX, cousin Torey Morris Jr. of Fayetteville AR, uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stern of Effingham IL, uncle and aunt Jon Silver of Wichita Falls TX, godfather Jeffery Strickland of Arlington TX, stepsister s Madison and Kendall Love of DeSoto TX and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Alexander was raised in Little Elm. He began his education at King Elementary and remained in LEISD until he graduated from Little Elm High School in 2018. Alex ran track for LE Lightning and LEHS. Alex also played football for LEAYAS thru varsity football at LEHS. He was a member of CrossRidge church and made the decision to follow the Christ in baptism on August 12, 2012.

Alexander loved long walks, music, a good meal, and the Philadelphia Eagles! Alex loved being a big brother most of all. In their childhood years, he and Makayla were the best of friends. My favorite song, to this day, is their laughter and the pitter-patter of their little feet, as they ran across the kitchen floor. Alex taught Makayla how to do everything from playing video games to the proper stance for air guitar. He was loving and protective of her till the end, always making sure that nobody hurt his little sister.

Alex's story would not be complete without mentioning his deep love and affection for his grandmother Pattie Cleaver. They went for long walks, delivered food for meals on wheels, visited the elderly, gardened, watched television and simply made each other laugh.

Alex spent the last few years of his life pursuing a music career and living with his father. I know they both cherished that time together.

Alex was preceded in death by his step-grandfather Uriah Cleaver, his grandmother Rosalie Rogers, aunt Angela Lee, and brother by choice Roy Goins Jr.
