“ Alma Fay dated my grandfather, Brady Starr, for a number of years. She always treated our family well and we enjoyed her company over the years. I also have fond memories of Alma Fay while she worked for the Aubrey ISD, she always treated the students with love and respect. One of her many tasks was selling ice cream treats during lunch time, Alma would often pay for ice cream when students couldn't afford it or just forgot to bring their money. She probably spent more money on buying ice cream for students than she actually made. RIP Alma Fay, see you on the other side.
