“ Mom had a wonderful dry sense of humor. You never knew where the next zinger would hit. She was very warm and welcomed me into the family , it was very easy to love her. And she loved Christmas. She always wanted to be sure everyone got what they wanted , she had such a generous heart. We loved talking flowers and what to plant next. She will always have a place in my heart, it will be a joyful time when we see each other in heaven. I love you mom! Gina

My mom was always making sure we had everything we wanted for Christmas growing up. She always found a way to get us a certain toy or outfit. She was always there for us and will be missed terribly. I know she is at peace with the angels in heaven. Love you mom, Always, Theresa
