“ Momma, I miss you so. I am trying my best to take care of Daddy like I promised you I would. He is lost without you as am I. I know in my heart the Lord has his hand in the night you passed away. Me being there at that time of night was just not in the normal for us. You and I had a good long talk earlier that day and I am so thankful that we did. I told you I would bring you some ginger ale to help your stomach. When I remembered to do that I came by and that is when you passed. I did everything I knew to do to breathe life back into you, but it was not in God's plan. I am so thankful I was there for you and to help daddy through this. He misses you so much as I do. We are going again today to put some pretty spring flowers on your resting place. It's springtime and beautiful today. The flowers are hydrangea and roses, which we know are your favorites. We are going to David's resting place today too and put some pretty flowers for him. Daddy and I go quite often, he would go everyday if I would let him. Momma, I love you, daddy and I miss you so much. You will never be forgotten and will live in my heart until I see you again.

Love you, Carolyn
