“ Hi mama, I just wanted to say Merry Christmas in heaven! Tomorrow will be Christmas #6 in Heaven for you mama. I'm sure your Celebration will be much different then ours for you truly the real meaning of being HOME for Christmas. Tomorrow I will wake up & enjoy the day with my precious gifts from Jesus & know that even though I cannot see you: you'll be sitting right next to me holding my hand again like in this picture reminding me that I'm so very much loved & will always be you "Bug" I love you mama. I miss you more than you'll ever know but I'm doing fine. Kiss Nina & Pepaw & Ayeria for me. #LoveYourBabyGirl

“ Hi Mommy...I sure miss the sound of your voice. I sure miss the gentle reassurance that I am loved and that life is "ok" to mess up sometimes. I sure miss the days when I was "just someones little girl" but most of all I want to thank you for everything. We all have imperfections but you will always be perfect in my eyes. I love you so very much, I will always look for you in the dawn of a new day. Love your baby girl!

“ Barbara was an amazing spirit, she never met a stranger and would take anyone under her precious wing. She had the best laugh and the biggest heart. She would give her last to anyone who needed it and that is the true spirit that Jesus would want us all to have. I have no doubt that she is with the Father and that comforts me in this time of loss. May she rest in peace and her memories made in the flesh be cherished in our hearts forever. Love and blessings to the family.

“ Barbara, didn't get the opportunity to actually meet you in person, and for that I am sad, but when we would talk or email I felt I had known you forever! A sense of warmth comeover me when we would visit with one another. I could hear such happiness in your voice when we talked and I could read it in your emails. You will be missed by all but never forgotten..
