“ Barton was as kind a teenager as he was a young man. I loved watching him play basketball for our homeschool organization. He had an amazing vertical jump for his height and was always such a hard worker on the court. I got to see and visit with him a bit , when he did the drone footage for his parents, a year or so ago ,at an event at their home, and he was just as kind and pleastant as he was in his youth. He will truly be missed.
