

Becky Sue Dever

July 18, 1943 - November 23, 2025

Becky Sue Dever, 82, of Aubrey, TX, passed away Sunday, November 23, 2025. Becky was born July 18, 1943, to Raymond Willet Wickham and Geraldine Katherine Davis.

A devoted Women's Health Care Nurse Practitioner, Becky was a true example of love, passion, and unwavering dedication.

In her early 50s, Becky returned to school and earned her practitioner's license, an achievement that filled her heart with pride. Over her remarkable 46-year nursing career, she dedicated 13 years to the Brazos Maternal Child Health Clinic in Bryan, TX, and spent her final four years alongside Dr. Greggs, an esteemed OBGYN in Dallas, TX, before retiring.

Becky was not only committed to her professional life, but also to her community and family. She was an active member of the First United Methodist Church in The Colony, TX, where she sang in their choir. Her passion for family being the core of Becky's existence, she especially cherished her role as a grandmother. Her grandchildren were a source of immense pride and joy.

In her leisure, Becky's creativity and interests were endless. While her heart and mind really shined in writing and poetry, her hands crafted beautiful cross-stitch and crochet pieces, she played piano and the organ, and loved to bake.

A puzzle enthusiast and avid reader, she spent countless hours tackling challenges and devouring books from her favorite authors, like Agatha Christie, Dick Francis, and Neil deGrasse Tyson.

Becky had a deep appreciation for the beauty of life. She loved Hawaii, horse racing, collecting teapots, planting flowers every spring, and anything and everything that involved her family. In her collection of writing, she talks about the times she held each one of her grandchildren. She talks about the laughs, and the hugs, and all adoration she had— and how she felt so uniquely blessed because of them.

Becky leaves a profound emptiness in the hearts of all who knew her. In remembering Becky, we celebrate a life lived fully and remember the impact she had on those around her.

Becky is survived by her daughter, Jenny Hundt and husband Michael of Aubrey, TX; sons, Chris Dever and wife Sarah of Kapalua, Maui, and Dan Dever of Dallas, TX; Ex-Husband, Daniel Dever of Sadler, TX; and three grandchildren, Michael Winn, Madalyn Hundt, and Matthew Hundt.

Becky was preceded in death by her brother, Raymond Todd Wickham, and parents, Raymond and Geraldine Wickham.

A memorial service will be held at 4:00 PM, Friday, December 12, 2025, at Slay Memorial Chapel in Aubrey, TX.

Online condolences may be shared at www.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com.

Arrangements are under the direction of Terri Slay and Slay Memorial Funeral Center.

“ I was Beckys friend/Hairstylist for over 15 years. I loved her like a aunt. She was a faithful client and friend. We always shared memories and new stories with eachother,caught up on eachothers families. She wrote so many beautiful poems she shared with me, loved her poems. She was a amazing cook. She loved her family so much especially her grandkids. I looked forward to seeing her. She's so caring and loved all her story telling. I looked up to her so much and she helped me through some hard times and celebrated my good times. Just through our weekly/monthly visits. As time went by Becky wasn't able to drive herself so sometimes I would pick her up and drop her off. I did it because she was special to me. But, it was hard with scheduling at times so she set up a service to still come see me, I appreciated that. Then time passed more and she moved farther away and wasn't able to get a ride to see me. I really do miss her and our visits. She brings joy every where she goes and I miss her so much. She was one of my favorite clients. Im so sad she's passed but I know I will cherrish our time and memories together. Thank you Becky for all you did in my life and you really will always have a place in my heart
