My Uncle Frank. My only memories of you are from my childhood. But they are wonderful memories that I have always cherished. You were kind and funny! I only have fond memories of both you and your brother, my Uncle Johnny. As well as your wives, my Aunts, Paula and Sandy. My condolences go out to my Aunt Paula and my cousins Jon and Tiffany as well as everyone whose life you touched and who now feels an emptiness and grief in your absence. May they find peace in the warmth of their memories of you. ❤️
