“ I met Bennie Wayne, or Wayne, as he was known to me in 1981. I was walking past his house one evening and he was out in front. I found out real quick that a casual nod was not in his nature. We engaged in a lively conversation and forged a bond from the beginning. I was in my early twenties and Wayne was about fourteen. I used my time in Tioga as a resident and a city employee to build on that relationship. I tried to be a friend and a role model to Wayne, his brother Mark and to a group of young men that he was excited to introduce me to. He was more than outgoing and definitely not backward when it came to sharing a good thing with everybody when he found it! Wayne was the initial attendee at a weekly Bible study I started in my home. On March 21, 1982, he bowed his head in prayer and asked the Lord Jesus to forgive his sins and to come into his heart. It wasn't long after that I found myself hosting three other young men, including Mark, at my Bible study!

Wayne was not content to keep me bottled up in Tioga. He insisted that I come with him to Aubrey and meet his Boy Scout leader. I was subsequently recruited to be an assistant leader on a winter backpacking outing along the Cross Timbers Trail on Lake Texoma. The mercury dropped to 5 degrees F. during the night we spent out! Thank you, Wayne, for that! And thank you, Wayne, for your infectious grin and your crazy, zany ways! You were like a brother and a son to me in the best of ways.

“. . . he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.” Proverbs 15:15

“ You always said that "I always got something smart to say", well I don't this time. 😞 I'm going to miss your loud, annoying, caring, big hearted selfless self! I know you will watch over and be there for my daddy, your family, and me(your daughter) in heaven, just as you did on earth. Don't be up there chasing them pretty angel ladies! I love you and you will be so so so missed! 🙏🙏🙏
