

Bernard Menard

August 17, 1927 - January 8, 2013

Bernard F. Menard, age 85, passed away on January 8, 2013 in Denton, Texas. Bernie was born August 17, 1927 to Dennis and Violetie Robidax Menard in Windsor, Ontario, Canada. He married Joan Meyer October 24, 1959 in San Diego, CA and she preceded him in death. In the 45 years Bernie spent in California, he worked as a master tool and die maker while also developing considerable skills in carpentry and upholstery. He filled his spare time coaching baseball and soccer. His favorite accomplishments include bowling 4 300 games, designing a unique rocking horse and hosting the best of parties. Bernie loved life especially when it brought an opportunity to learn something new. His intelligence and passion were rarely matched. Bernie is survived by two sons, Buzz Menard of Pilot Point and Jeff Menard of Gardena, CA; one daughter, Denise Davis of Louisville, KY; and seven grandchildren. The family will receive friends at Bernie's home in Pilot Point this Friday evening, January 11, at 7:00pm. Arrangements are under the direction of Terri Slay and Slay Memorial Funeral Center.
