“ Bob and Patsy were the best boss's a person could have. I worked with them for about 9 years and they were so good to me. That was 40 years ago. Bob could design some of the most beautiful arrangements and Patsy was the same. Talented and they loved Pilot Point so much. They raised two good boys and remained active in the community even after they sold their shop. He was very special to me because he took the time to teach me. Happy, smiling and laughing , that was Bob Brown. He will be missed. God Bless Patsy and the boys and grandchildren.

“ I haven't seen or talked to Bob in over 50 years, but as a kid growing up in Pilot Point he made a lasting impression on me. He was older than me, but I remember Bob as being friendly, always having time to talk, and quick with a smile and laugh. I feel privileged to have known Bob and regret his passing. My deepest sympathy to Patsy and family.
