“ Carolyn is my sweet motherinlaw, she loved life to the fullest, it didn't matter what event she was at baseball, football her favorite was Nascar. This lady never missed the State Fair of Texas, she loved life.

So thrilled my husband lead her to the Lord Abt a year ago. She left us with a beautiful smile on her face.

Love her with all my ❤️

Carolyn and I worked together over 20 yrs at the credit Union. She was a mess.I loved her so much. Never a dull moment.

We had some great times. We fussed about Jerry and my Husband Bill but it was our faults cause we spoiled them.

Carolyn you rest now and don't worry. Your sweet soul will be missed.

Tell Dale hi for us 😞😞😞🇺🇸🏁🏁🏁

Carolyn and I knew each other 50 plus years. We met at Western Union in downtown Dallas where we both worked. We became fast friends. We both had baby girls. We spent time together on our breaks and at lunch. We would sometimes go across the street to the Piccadilly Cafeteria on our morning break and eat a quick breakfast. We both loved fried eggs, but Carolyn ate hers with grits. Yuck!! One day Carolyn finally convinced me to at least try it. Well I was hooked. To this day, if grits are available I am having fried eggs with grits. We laughed about that for years. When our girls were 4 years old I went thru a divorce. I was going to have to move back home with my parents. When Carolyn found out she so graciously asked me and my daughter to move in with her and Mitzi till I could afford my own place. I couldn't have asked for a better friend. Out of our friendship Mitzi and Valerie , my daughter, became fast friends. I am thankful to say their friendship is still going strong. Even though we only worked together for 15 years we kept in touch. It didn't matter how long it was between visits. We picked up right where we left off as though no time had passed. Carolyn was so much fun to spend time with and never a dull moment. She truly lived life to the fullest. Anyone with Carolyn as a friend was truly blessed. I know I was. The last few years we had very little contact. If only I could change that. I am so thankful Carolyn confessed her sins and accepted Jesus as her Lord and Savior and we will see each other again one day. Even though my heart hurts that she had to go too soon, I thank God she is no longer suffering. Carolyn, I hope you knew I love you with all my heart. I miss you my friend!
