*I've known Chantal a looong time, since way back in Grayslake Cong days. She was almost exactly 6 mos older than me. I felt close to her partly because her dad was born in Alsace- Lorraine as was my Great-grandfather! She made me feel... French! She was about as kind a person as you could ever know . And I can still hear her so 'young sounding ' laugh. She was an excellent cook, a very good friend & especially a most loyal Christian sister. It seems to me she had a fondness for , I think, maybe the ...ducks that would come to the backyard & she would put low pans or dishes of bread out for them . So sweet. She was a good daughter & of course a loving wife & mother. She will be dearly missed but only for a short time. We will soon all welcome her back, waiting patiently, being with her as she welcomes back her beloved Jean Jacques & parents. Sending you, Pascal & Judy and Doninique warmest condolences with love & prayers.Waiting with you....
Until Jehovah Calls
With love, Bob & Ann Briggs & the entire Briggs Family*
