“ Uncle Charles--What a life well lived! 89 years! Faithfully married to the same bride for 65 years. A wonderful family legacy of 5 children, 12 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren. Rock solid Catholic throughout. Pillar of your community. A model of Texas grit and common sense. Able to work the land with bountiful harvests through the many cycles of life. What a role model you are for your family! We'll miss you. God bless and we pray grant thee eternal rest.

“ Charles Boerner was a wonderful man. Although there are MANY memories made with Charles, I think one of my most fun memories of him was when we we're playing 42 in dominoes. I bid low spots and he just laughed at me. He asked if I really wanted to do that because he didn't think I could. Well in the end I had the last laugh that night. It was awesome! Charles will definitely be missed here on earth but something tells me his two grandchildren, Melissa and John, have welcomed him in to heaven with open arms. The family now has three angels keeping watch. You are soo loved and will never be forgotten.
