

Christopher Lee Rust

June 28, 1977 - August 25, 2024

Christopher Lee Rust, 47, of Aubrey, TX passed away tragically on Sunday, August 25, 2024, in McKinney, TX. He passed away doing what he loved so much – riding his motorcycle. Chris was born in Dallas, TX on June 28, 1977, to Richard Rust and Alice Adair.

Chris was a loving son, father, and husband. He lived a life filled with passion, adventure, and an unwavering love for his family and friends. Chris was the hardest working man anyone would ever meet. He spent his life working through being a concrete saw cutter, an estimator for Associated Concrete Cutting for 15 years, followed by almost 5 years with ACT. In his deepest desire to leave a legacy of all he knew, he spent the last three years of his life committed and dedicated to fulfilling his personal dream of owning his own saw cutting business, Legacy Cutting. If he wasn't working, he would be looking for adventure at the nearest lake, boating and wakeboarding, driving his favorite 1991 Fox Body Ford Mustang, or at the gym in his pursuit of personal fitness.

Chris will be remembered for his infectious smile, his classic giggle, his zest for life, and his love for the open road. He leaves behind a lasting impact on all who knew him, and his memory will be forever etched in our hearts.

Chris is survived by his wife, Alisa Yarter; father, Richard Rust and Kathryn

Watson; and mother, Alice Thornton and husband Eddie. His legacy lives on through his beloved children, Jordan and Kylee Rust, whom he shared with Jackie Lovelady.

Chris was a devoted husband to Alisa, and a one in a million stepfather to Ethan, Prestan, Whittan, and Piersan Yarter. Together they stood as a beautiful family of 8 through life's great journeys.

A celebration of Chris' life will be held on Friday, September 6, 2024, from 12:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. at their home, 3004 Quartz Rd, Aubrey, TX 76227. It will be an informal come and go event. Please feel free to stop by during this time to reminisce and honor him.

“ The past is the past that you don't reflect on until times like this and the memories of Chris come flashing in my mind. First I see that ever present smile. I see him being his mischievous self at every turn. I see all the times I saw him as the "adrenaline junkie" he was. Chris could make me laugh all day long and I was blessed to be a part of loads of laughter being a part of the family. He was a great father and family man. He worked hard and played hard. I loved him as my own and it breaks my heart knowing that his beautiful family has to go on without him. Prayers for comfort and healing at this time of deep sorrow. He will be sorely missed. Gogo

“ Although I hadn't seen Chris in over 30 years, this one hurts as if we spoke yesterday. We were best friends growing up in Austin living 4 or 5 houses down from each other. We were all over the neighborhood with our bikes and skateboards but when Alice blew that air horn, it was time for him to get his butt home. I recall going to his grandfather's (Mr. Adair) lake house a couple of times to fish, ride the jet ski, and the riding lawnmower trying jump a dirt hill. No luck there. We flipped over backwards. I read about his '91 fox body being one of his prized possessions. Pretty sure this is the one Alice used to drive us around in when we were barely in middle school. He couldn't wait to drive that thing. I remember he would spend hours and hours playing Zelda until he finally beat it. I tried a few times over the years to reunite with him but unfortunately it didn't happen. I pray for his wife, kids, Alice & Ed whole heartedly. I'm not a visually emotional guy but I can't see my screen right now. Lol. I miss you buddy.

“ Chris was an amazing guy from my teenage years. He really did have an infectious smile that lit up the world. It is very bittersweet hearing the news and what a tragedy occurred, but he definitely left a legacy and I know without a shadow of a doubt that he was a wonderful husband, father and friend. My prayers are going up for the family.

“ Alisa, this picture captures the love that you have for each other. Every time I see this it reminds me of the happiness and journey you began with Chris. Never let that love go. Hold on tight and remember all the amazing memories you have shared over the years. Until you meet again.

“ Chris was very active with all the kids and sports. Chris was very approachable and could talk about anything. Loved Chris's smile and laugh. Chris will be missed. Gone too soon.
