“ What I'll remember about Marlene the most. Is her love of family. Her face lit up when talking about her family. Especially about her grandbabies. Also at work when someone was giving us heck. She would march up there and help us. She truly was a mama bear at home and at work. I planned on being there today I'm so sorry I missed it. I really wanted to be there. She'll be missed by many including me. She was definitely one of a kind. Praying for your family.

“ Marlene! Her smile lit-up every heart!

She spoke softly so you had to sit forward to listen. Seldom showing worry, Marlene showered her world with her love for Almighty God! As a teacher, she quoted Bible verses from memory, explaining His Word so others could understand that by believing in Him, He could solve worries and problems and offer everlasting life.

Could be our Lord God had much bigger plans for Marlene - and wanted her in Heaven with Him, sooner than later!

When I close my eyes I can see her smiling face...body fully healed; she is young again, light of heart, and joyously held in His Heavenly embrace! Promises fulfilled. God takes the best home to rest with Him.

Until we meet again, beautiful Marlene!

If we died with him, we will also live with him. 2 Timothy 2:11
