“ What a privilege to be your daughter-in-law for all these years. You were so wonderful to me when Davy passed away. I miss your biggest grin and the bear hugs each time we met. No matter what the situation or the circumstances, you were always positive and happy with your life except of course when you lost your beloved Betty and Davy. You were a proud dad of all your children as you mentioned it to me time and time again. Even though I was only your daughter by marriage, you told me how much you loved me like you would love your own daughter. You had proven to me the unconditional love. I am glad that you dont have to endure the pain and suffering any longer that you are reunited once again with your beloved Betty and Davy. Until we meet again papa Dan, I always loved you and will love you and remember you in my heart. Your daughter, Sovy Thompson
