

Daniel Lee Flagg

December 29, 2003 - July 29, 2021

Daniel Lee Flagg, age 17, of Pilot Point, was taken home to be with Christ his savior, Thursday, July 29, 2021, in Pilot Point. Daniel is the son of Dan Dee and Tracy Deann Breland Flagg. He was born December 29, 2003, in Plano, Texas and is brother to Jessica and husband Brandon Gee of Sanger, Texas. Daniel loved his girlfriend, Sienna and often told his family, "She's the one". They made each other very happy and his love for her was the only thing stronger than his love for all things beef or chicken related on a plate.

Daniel was a student at Pilot Point High School where he played Varsity baseball. He also played for the select team, Dallas Patriots. Daniel had a passion for baseball and played the position of catcher since the age of 12. He spent most of this summer playing in tournaments every weekend and loved every minute.

Daniel loved the outdoors, especially fishing and being on the water. He was a believer in Christ and was baptized at Midway Church in the sixth grade. Daniel had a big heart for his family and others. He always told his family how much he loved them.

Survivors include, his grandmother, Barbara Breland of Pilot Point; uncles, Lee and wife Renee Breland of Minot, North Dakota and William and wife Dana Flagg of Garland, Texas; aunt, Dorothy and David Jackson of Dawson, Texas.

The family will receive friends during visitation, Tuesday, August 3, 2021, from 6:30PM – 8:00PM at the Slay Memorial Chapel in Aubrey. A celebration of Daniel's life will begin at 10:00AM, Wednesday, August 4, 2021, at Midway Church with burial following at Pilot Point Community Cemetery. “ Oh boy and all the shenanigans you and my son got into over the years.
I'm going to miss that Big Smile and run ups to the plate while racing my kid to the mound, telling you to slow down and seeing you play ball.
You were one of a kind and had such a zest for life.
Love you Daniel!
Fly High ❤️
