“ What can I say.. Danny Matthews I remember trying to run you over and then we became related by marriage and I had no choice but to like you...that turned into love and remained that way till I wanted to run you over again!..lol

All good..two beautiful girls were brought into my life and I decided you could live...we remained friends and we loved each other. I will miss you, my friend. ❤️❤️ Deb

“ Danny and Tammy arrived in Texas in 1978 carrying all they owned. Tammy a small suitcase and Danny holding a giant sequined sombrero that he'd won at the Raleigh State Fair. It was quite a site and Jay said under his breath...Does he think that's what they wear in Texas! Love you Danny Matthews...Mom

“ Being first cousins only a year older than Danny I will remember him always as we were as children. Mischievous but always kind. He was a master at finding shark teeth and shared the treasures he found. My sincere condolences and prayers of comfort to his family. Patty Allred
