“ Before Danny or my daughter turned 18, they shared with me their desire to one day get married, and immediately wanted to have a baby. Blessed with a son, Dylan Duane Branson, their beautiful love story began. They were young parents, who cherished that boy, making him the center of their world. Danny was more like a son I never had, and I will forever hold him and so many memories, safe within my heart. Dylan, you are such a good son, and one thing I am so thankful for, both your Mom and especially now, your Dad, have always felt your strong unconditional love for them. I am heartbroken we have lost Danny. He was incredibly proud of you... My deepest sympathy to Danny's entire family.
