

Mr. David Jeremy Bolgiano

January 4, 1974 - September 25, 2025

David Jeremy Bolgiano, 51, of Little Elm, TX, was called home on Thursday, September 25, 2025. He was born on January 4, 1974, in Odessa, TX, to Emily Ann and James Richard Bolgiano.

A proud U.S. Navy veteran, David enlisted in August 1993 and served aboard the USS Curts. His time in the military allowed him to travel the world, experience new cultures, and develop a lifelong love of fine cuisine. He was deeply grateful for the opportunity to serve his country and cherished the friendships he formed along the way.

David was a devoted father to his two sons, James and Benjamin, of whom he was immensely proud. He treasured the memories they created together, especially through their shared involvement in the Boy Scouts. David served as Scoutmaster for Troop 45, where he found joy in fellowship, leadership, and community.

A gifted musician, David loved spending his evenings on the back porch playing guitar for friends. He had a magnetic personality and found great joy in good company, laughter, and music—often found sharing stories and strumming tunes at the Almost Home Tap House. To David, friends were family, and he made everyone feel like they belonged.

Among his many passions was his hobby of building and maintaining exotic fish aquariums. He took great pride in creating vibrant aquatic environments, always striving to learn more and improve his craft. David was also a talented artist. His creativity shone in many forms, from painting to graphic design. When his sons were young, he made sure they had the best-decorated lunch sacks in school, each one a true mini masterpiece. He later channeled his artistic talents into his business, El Dorado Media Company, which he owned and operated in Little Elm.

David was deeply involved in his community. He was an active member of the Little Elm Rotary Club, served on the Frisco Veterans Advisory Committee, supported FLEAS Animal Shelter, and participated in numerous other community and veteran organizations.

David leaves behind a legacy and will be remembered for his many talents, his quick-witted humor, his generous spirit, and above all, his boundless love for his sons.

He is survived by his father, James Bolgiano of Aubrey, TX; mother, Emily Rumfield of Keller, TX; sons, James Dylan and Benjamin Bolgiano of Little Elm, TX; brother, Jesse Bolgiano and wife, Misty, of Crawford, TX; nephew, Cash Bolgiano; and niece, Averi Bolgiano as well as many other cousins, relatives and friends.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, October 4, 2025, at 3:00 PM at Slay Memorial Funeral Chapel in Aubrey, TX.

Online condolences may be shared at www.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Terri Slay and Slay Memorial Funeral Center.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made by check to:

Friends of the Little Elm Animal Shelter

2701 Little Elm Pkwy, Ste 100-1006

Little Elm, TX 75068

Previous Events

Funeral Service

OCT 4. 3:00 PM (CT)

Slay Memorial Chapel of Aubrey
400 South Highway 377
Aubrey, TX 76227
info@slaymemorial.com
<http://www.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com>

Tribute Wall

SF

“ Just now seeing this - David created a wonderful website for me - he was so incredibly talented. My heart goes out to his family and his friends. Scott Finley

---

scott finley - December 06, 2025 at 06:40 PM

HF

“ My condolences to the Bolgiano family and Rumfield family. David was gone too soon.

---

Hicks family - October 03, 2025 at 11:31 AM