He loved working on his 25 acre property, spending countless hours mowing, gardening, and caring for his cows. In the late 1970s, he and Nancy enjoyed square dancing with their sons and many friends from the community.

His long career with the U.S. Postal Service began in the 1950s, substituting for George Bell in Aubrey before transferring to the Denton Post Office in 1958, where he worked for 40 years before retiring in 1998.

Following his retirement from the Postal Service, he dedicated himself to caring for his beloved wife. After her passing in 2002, he returned to the workforce, joining Avis at DFW Airport, where he worked for another 12 years before finally retiring.

Don is survived by his sons, Steve Biggs of Denton, TX and David Biggs and wife Sharon of Denton, TX; two nieces, Karen Brown of Burleson, TX and Tanya Dunbar of Dallas, TX; two nephews, Bob and Mitch Latham of Mansfield, LA.

“ Don was our daughter's father-in-law who she dearly loved and cherished for his cheerful attitude and friendly nature. He was so close to her husband David and his older brother Steve who both loved and cherished him. It was always a pleasure to be around Don as he made everyone feel welcome. We will miss his smile and laughter at future family gatherings.
