“ Mom- I can't imagine not seeing you every week. Greeting you with open arms, giving me kisses and big hugs! Your eyes lighting up the second we would come in! You have always been an inspiration for our whole family to follow! I am so proud God chose you to be my Mom and gave me 59 wonderful years with you! I told Terri Id always take care of you and I tried my best. I can just see you now with her! Loving and kissing all over her face! What a joyous day it must be in Heaven! Meet me at the pearly gates when my time is up and well all rejoice and be together again!!! Until then, Rest In Peace and look over us, keep us safe and know well always love and miss you! ❤️❤️❤️

“ Dorothy was my sister in law and I with them at her wedding and had cake and punch at my house after they married. She was a beautiful woman and very kind and loved everyone. My love to her children and the rest of her family and we shall see her again. God Bless and know that she was loved by many. James can not get out or he would have come. He loved her too. Love, Bobbie Erwin, Scott, and James
