“ I was blessed to have her as my Mother. I never went hungry, I always had clothes to wear, even if she had to make them, and I always had shelter. She leaves me with many memories. I will miss her voice and her laughter.

“ I lit a candle to help you see the light everywhere you go. I will always remember the trips to Grandmas house in the station wagon with Thunder in the back drooling all over us. I will always remember the bunk beds with 4 girls that shared a room. I will always remember you getting us all ready on time for church on Sundays. You had a very difficult life and I just hope that now you are free, there will be no more tears or fears or pain.
