“ Sister, Shelia and I were very sorry to hear of your and your family's loss. We always enjoyed the visits we had with you guys. After the many years of marriage yall shared it will surely be hard but with the help of your kid's, their family and your faith you will find the strength to make it, one day at a time. Love and prayers, Jimmy and Shelia Young ”

“ Our prayers and thoughts are with you and your family. We have fond memories of times past when we would come and visit. Eddie always looked forward to Judy bringing a coconut pie and we would sit around the table and tell stories of when we were younger. We have a very special angel looking over us all.
