“ Our sincere condolences to Mrs. Val, Lauren, and all the family. We first met when they visited DFW for the holidays but got to know them better as they were preparing to transition up to the DFW area. Edward was usually very quiet and reserved when we met but always so kind and always had a smile for us. We know he will be deeply missed and we are praying for the peace and comfort only our Heavenly Father can give. May your fond memories always bring immense joy and thanksgiving!

“ Edward and Val were long time neighbors of ours while they were still living here in Sugar Land, Texas and we really missed them when they left for Dallas. Mr. Edward and my father in law Perry Pabalan were real buddies who loved gardening and talking about everything, both very knowledgeable about current events and such. When I go across the street to visit him and Val, we will be talking for a long time about what's happening with the world . Edward was a wonderful man with a good heart. Him and Val practically watched my daughter Misty grow up and when I mentioned to Misty about Edward's passing, she was teary eyed and said, Mr. Edward and Grandpa Perry will be having a good conversation in heaven again. We will surely treasure the times my family get to know you Edward and we will never forget you. May you Rest In Peace Edward.
