

Elena Angelica Lollis-Bravo

February 9, 1946 - February 13, 2013

Mom, Today we lost the light in our lives but I know that you have gone to Heaven to take your place with the angels and I know that God has placed a huge crown for being the most wonderful and loving mother that you are. We take comfort that one day we will be reunited. You will always be in our hearts, a part of our souls, and in our thoughts and prayers everyday of our lives. Te amamos con todo nuestro corazon que Dios te tenga en su gloria. (Descanse en paz) Love your Children - Paul and Katherine....
