

Ezekiel Josiah Bolanos

July 4, 2021 - February 10, 2025

It is with deep sadness the Olguin family announces the passing of their beloved boy, Ezekiel Josiah Bolanos, on February 10, 2025. He was born on July 4, 2021 to his loving mother, Gloria Olguin, in Denton, TX.

Ezekiel loved to spend time with his family. He enjoyed having his cousins over and going on picnics at the park. His favorite cartoon character was Stitch and Ezekiel had a deep fondness for anything related to him. Ezekiel was a resilient and strong little boy and fought until the very end. Anyone who had the privilege to be a part of Ezekiel's life knows he was truly special.

He is survived by his mom, Gloria; brother, Junior; and a host of family and friends.

A memorial will be held at Slay Memorial Chapel, 400 S. Highway 377 in Aubrey, TX on Thursday, February 13, 2025 from 1:00PM-2:00PM. The family encourages all who knew Ezekiel to attend to share memories and celebrate his life. On-line condolences may be shared at www.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com.

Floral arrangements may be ordered at Aubrey Florist, (940) 365-9940, located next to Slay Memorial Funeral Center.

Arrangements are under the direction of Terri Slay and Slay Memorial Funeral Center.

“ I have had the privilege of taking care of Ezekiel as his physical therapist for the past year. In that short time, I have grown to love him and his family. Ezekiel was a remarkable child, who showed me that disability is not a weakness. He worked very hard in all his therapies and made every session so much fun. He was resilient, playful, and sweet. Ezekiel's passing is a loss I will feel for the rest of my days. His memory reminds me to cherish each moment with all my babies.

I am endlessly proud of you Ezekiel, and I will forever miss our cuddles. We really had a great time together! Rest in peace stink, Miss K misses you and loves you ☐

“ To your smile, those bright brown almond eyes, and contagious laugh, would I ever think about saying goodbye for the last time. Thank you for a full 3 and a half years filled with amazing memories and happiness. From hardships and good times you really have changed my life for the better and taught me a lesson I would value for the rest of my life. Thank you for making me a dad and showing me love comes in many small packages. Too waking up in the middle of the night from crying to holding you while you sleep thinking there's no other place I would rather be. To making funny faces when you were annoyed with me and smiling so big with those 2 cute teeth when we locked eyes. So many moments that can't be typed or explained. Thank you for everything papa you will always be in my heart and in my soul. We all ❤️ you bubba! See you later baby boy.

— Love Dadda ☐ 😊
