

Geraldine Templin

October 26, 1933 - June 5, 2026

Geraldine Templin, age 92, passed away peacefully at her home on June 5, 2026. Born on October 26, 1933, in Prosper, Texas, Geraldine lived a life centered on family, friendship, generosity, and love.

Geraldine grew up in Prosper and was honored as the first Homecoming Queen and Football Sweetheart in 1952. She later raised her family in Irving, Texas, before moving to the Aubrey/Pilot Point area in 1997 with one of her daughters. Throughout her life, she created a home filled with warmth, laughter, and countless cherished memories.

She found joy in life's simple pleasures-working puzzles, tending to her plants, and spending time with her family. In her younger years, she enjoyed sports and was an incredibly talented seamstress. She lovingly sewed clothing for her daughters and created beautiful Barbie outfits that became treasured memories for her family. She also enjoyed crocheting and later in life took great pride in teaching her grandchildren how to sew and crochet, passing along both her skills and her patience.

Geraldine was known for sharing her wisdom through her beloved "Grannyisms." When asked how she was feeling, she would often reply, "Fair to middlin'," a phrase so familiar that even her nurses affectionately referred to her by it. Another favorite saying was, "The Good Lord willing and the creek don't rise." These expressions, along with her quick wit and sense of humor, brought smiles to those around her and became part of the legacy she leaves behind.

Her family will remember her for her unwavering loyalty, generous spirit, and the way she loved others without condition. She never hesitated to give, even when she had little herself, and she welcomed friends into her life as family. Her kindness, humor, and devotion to those she loved will be deeply missed and forever treasured.

One of the greatest comforts to her family is knowing that Geraldine spent her final moments peacefully at home, with her sweet dog, Snoopy, resting in her lap and her beloved cat, Olaf, by her side.

Geraldine was preceded in death by her parents, George Templin and Ruby Hart Templin; her grandchildren, Kimmie Little and Anne Wood; her son-in-law, Bryan Dixon; her brother-in-law, Frank O'Dell; 10 brothers; 4 sisters; and multiple brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law.

She is survived by her daughters, Tracy Fritz and husband Mike of Pilot Point, Texas; Kim Wood and husband John of Bedford, Texas; Robin Little and husband Don of Oak Point, Texas; and Penny Dixon of Pilot Point, Texas; her sister, Pat O'Dell of Prosper, Texas; 9 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; 2 great-great-grandchildren; and many beloved nieces and nephews.

Though her family grieves her passing, they celebrate a life well lived and a woman who filled the lives of others with love, laughter, and unforgettable memories. Her legacy will continue through the many lives she touched and the family she cherished so deeply.
