“ My wonderful Husband is missed so much . I will forever love my best friend and the man that was a father to my daughters He was with me every day of our lives . He loved to Bar-B- Q , fish , sit outside and do his crossword puzzles . He was in the furniture business all his life and a great manager , his friends always enjoyed him and his warm welcomes. He was a avid golfer ,played at the Atlanta Country Club and Oklahoma City Country Club . As his wife I am still shocked that he is not with me anymore , It all happened so fast . He had never been sick in his life . We traveled to so many different places every year. He loved his sister , brother-in-law , kids and grandkids very much . Always Your Wife
