“ Carol, Kim, and family I am so extremely sorry for your loss. I didn't know Harvey personally but I felt like I did through our conversations that Carol and I shared during the time I was blessed to be called her hairstylist. Words seem inadequate to express my sympathy for you all. Please know I am and will continue to lift all of you up in prayer continuously. Blessings of comfort! Love you Carol.

“ We are so sorry for your loss and our hearts are saddened. Mitchell and I only met Harvey a handful of times, but each time we did he made us laugh!! Haley has become very precious to our family, and because of that her family has too. Our hearts hurt for you all and we wish you blessings from the Davis family.

“ Carol- I know that there are no words to say to make you feel better, I do know that Harvey was a great man, father and papa. He will be missed by so many and I am so Happy that I got to see him at Christmas with that big smile and hug, talking about bathing Opey. He will forever be in our hearts and we will be praying for you, and just think about all the great times you have had with him. My heart hurts for you and the family, I know that Dusty and Hannah loved him so much and are so thankful for him. You know he is in heaven soring and telling his stories to a whole new group. May God be with you in your times of need. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. Love Lida & Paul

“ I wanted to let you know how sorry I am for your loss and I am thinking of you all. I also wanted to share one of my best memories of Harvey. A little back story first, Bayln and Hollyn were only 2 or 3 and I had just graduated nursing school and was working nights at the hospital. This happened after my 3rd 12 hour shift in a row. I had picked Bayln and Hollyn up from my parents house and gone home. I was so tired, I laid down on the bed and thought I'd close my eyes for just a minute. I obviously dozed off, because the next thing I remember was hearing giggling and a lot of crunching noises. I jump out of bed and run into the living room to find to little kids in their underwear with flour all over them. The floor was totally covered, I mean, could not see the floor. There was cereal, sugar spaghetti noodles, macaroni, literally everything from my pantry was all over the living room floor!! I ran to my phone in tears to call Randy to come get them. Then great, no answer. So I called Grandma. I know I must have scared her to death cause I was crying and asking if she had seen Randy. She asked what was wrong and I told her. Then told her if he didn't come get them I just might beat them. She laughed and said don't beat them, I'll find him. About 5 minutes later Randy and Harvey pulled up and I'm suiting there crying. Harvey and Randy did their best to encourage me and make me feel better. Then Harvey said " someday your gonna laugh about this day." I thought, " that's never gonna happen!" And now I chuckle every time I tell this story(which is quite often). I didn't realize then how wise he was. I will always remember how easy it was for him to make you laugh. Prays for you all.

“ Carol, Cary,& Kim, Jay and I are so sorry to hear about Harvey's passing. He was such a great man with a wonderful family. We will always keep him in our hearts. Jay and I spent our day today remembering our days in Carrollton and all the funny things Harvey did. Our only regrets where we waited so long between visits. God Bless all of you and give you strength.

“ Dearest Carol, I am so very sad for you and your family. I know you loved Harvey dearly and you were blessed to have him with you for many years of a life of love. I know you will keep him in your heart and hope you will some day be able to think back on all those years of love and joy. We all have hope of our lives to come, and may our Lord bring you strength and hope.Sincerely, Kathy Goldmann
