“ I had the privilege of knowing Helen when I was a young girl, I am now 16, I was 11 when she passed and left us. Every time I went into church she would be there and say hello and offer a friendly smile and hug. I loved her with all my heart and she will always be my best friend.

“Helen was a selfless, beautiful woman. She was in my bible study class every Wednesday for years, since our churchs merged. I know she loved her family beyond measure and she truly prayed for them on a regular basis. She also prayed for my family on a regular basis. She would find visitors in church on Sunday and make them welcome. She had a servants heart, Helen helped make many feel like a part of Gods family. She was the type of friend I was so blessed to have and I will never forget! I know she loved her grandkids deeply, and Im so thankful she is my sister in Christ! We will be lifting Helens family up during this difficult time, and I pray God will bless you all. Love & prayers, The Cagles Shawn & Tracy Emerson & Addalyn
