“ Wow... where to begin... Henry knows.. Next door neighbors.. childhood friends.. and now friendships of lifetime! We were blessed with a special day to celebrate you.. our Hero.. and Heroes of ALS. We lost and friend.. but God gained a beautiful Angel! Fly high and free Henry.. you've earned your wings!

“ Henry was a true Texas gentleman, a patriot, and one of the most inspirational men we've ever known. Throughout his health challenges, he maintained an incredible attitude and even insisted on helping others during some of his most difficult days. His faith and resilience were amazing. We were lucky and proud to know him, and sure he is intriguing many in Heaven today with some tremendous stories. Rest in peace friend.

“ Henry and Carmen have been really great neighbors to me and David for 18 years. We remember when we first met Henry he had such a big personality! He loved being outdoors and entertaining others. We enjoyed his stories and his hospitality. He will be missed.

“ Henry was the life of the party...a friend to everyone. Didn't have a mean bone in his whole body but what he did have was Jesus, kindness, fun, jokes and monkey bites. He loved his Carmie. A awesome outdoorsman that could cook whatever he brought in... You will be missed but I know we'll meet again that side of Heaven. So it's not goodbye but see ya later.
