

Homer Lavern Turnbow

January 27, 1941 - May 26, 2025

Homer Lavern Turnbow passed away peacefully surrounded by family in their home in Aubrey, TX, Monday, May 26, 2025. He was the son of Ather Turnbow and Evie Borden-Turnbow, born January 27, 1941, in Darnell, West Carroll Parish, Louisiana.

He married Rayleen Mosier in Dallas, Texas July 6, 1968, and together they raised two children Charles & Stephanie.

His interests included playing softball when he was younger, fishing, camping, and playing games with his family. He loved hosting fish fries and enjoyed gardening with his grandchildren. Homer was a member of the First Baptist Church in Little Elm, TX and loved studying his Bible and praying for his family. Homer took pride in encouraging and supporting his family and passed down a legacy of faith. He light-heartedly joked that he coached the Texas Rangers to their first World Series victory from the comfort of his recliner. His favorite saying was "You buy what you need and not what you want!"

Homer is survived by his two children, Charles and Stephanie and their families, including his grandchildren and great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ather and Evie, and his wife, Rayleen who was the love of his life.
