We got to know Mae some through her daughter, Deb and family. I feel privileged to have met her. She was so kind to us and was a loving parent and grand and great grand parent too. I know the family will be at a great loss without her and I want to extend my deepest love and prayers for all of them.

My son and I called her Grandma Mae. Mae and I almost every Friday we would go shopping. We stopped by Wendy's and then headed to Frisco to go to TJ max and Marshall's to the clearance section we would laugh and giggle and her daughter Debbie would check on her and she would say out shopping with. Linda.

Mae would get my son off to school and he would say mom grandma Mae can wake me up anytime she brings me warm muffins every morning.

We will truly miss her and loved her very much
