“ We loved James with all our hearts. He lived his Christian beliefs and was a wonderful example of Jesus' teachings: good, kind, faithful, loyal, prayerful, and loving. He was the best of brothers; Buck, especially, will miss him all the rest of his days.

“ James was a good man. I had the privilege of praying with James for several years on Thursday mornings as many of us men gathered as Prayer Warriors at the local churches. James will be missed, but we will meet again "over there" inside the Gates of Heaven.
