“ We will miss my Uncle Jimmy very much. I remember him having white bread, jelly, and a jar of pickles on the dinner table for supper. He taught me how to throw a horse shoe correctly. He always seemed genuinely glad to see us when we visited. I know he is with family in Heaven. RIP Uncle Jimmy. -Tracye Albone

“ I have so many memories of Uncle Jimmy. The one thing that just really sticks with me is all my life when we would have dinner with Aunt Nancy and Uncle Jimmy he would have bread and grape jelly with every dinner. I thought that was so funny as a kid. Also he was the sweetest , kindest , most non judgmental man . I never heard him say a negative or derogatory word about anyone. I loved uncle Jimmy very much!

The greatest part of moving to North Texas was enjoying being with our Hellman family. There was always laughter when our families were together especially during Thanksgiving or Christmas. My dad always considered Uncle Jimmy as his best friend. He could always rely on him. Our hearts hurt but I know my dad and Uncle Jimmy are rejoicing in Heaven. Life will not be the same without our Uncle. Prayers lifted for all our precious family especially Aunt Nancy. He will be loved and forever missed.
