“ Would not know where to start on what this man meant to me. A friend from the start, Camping together, games, new years eve bowling, and so much more. A true craftsmen in his work. I was always impressed on what he could do with his hands, he could build anything and make it look easy. A man that looked cancer in the face and beat it. Could of been the Loco Chili he ate after getting out of the hospital.LOL So many good times and great things I could say about him but most of all he was a great friend and I loved him.

“ Mr. Schroeder (and family) brought me on many vacations with them. Hawaii is the most memorable trip I have. He was like a second dad to me and I am forever grateful for the memories I have of him. May the "moon" always shine bright for you Mr. Schroeder.
Love, Meghan
