

Jeffrey Zane Rowe

February 20, 1970 - April 8, 2022

Jeffrey Zane Rowe, 52, of Providence Village, Texas transitioned and transformed into the loving arms of Jesus April 8, 2022.

Jeffrey is preceded in death by his grandparents Eddie and Elnita Hill and Avon and Helen Rowe. Left to cherish his memory are his parents, James, and Janis Rowe; brothers, Jim Rowe, Jason Rowe and wife Kelly Rowe; sister, Jill Rowe; and nephews and niece, Bennett, Justin, Jared, Zach, Olivia, and Jackson, along with numerous family and friends.

Jeffrey Zane came charging into this world small but mighty February 20, 1970. He was diagnosed at the age of 9 months with a rare genetic disorder called Cornelia De Lange Syndrome. With the help of his dedicated and loving family, he overcame many obstacles and taught us many lessons of kindness, love, and compassion. Although Jeffrey could only speak in two-to-three-word fragmented sentences, he could convey exactly what he wanted. Jeffrey had a love for car rides, country music, talking on the phone, riding his bike to the pool, and his cat, Misty Rain. Jeffrey will be remembered for his love of the police and fire department and a few irresistible phone calls to those departments just to say "Hi." Jeff's laugh, smile, and mischievous side will always be remembered by those who knew him.

Our family would like to give a special thanks to all the healthcare providers that went above and beyond during Jeffrey's esophageal cancer treatment.

“ We met Jeff in about 1978 when he and Kendra were in school together. They continued to be in the same class for the remaining 14 years until they finished their schooling. The same group of kids remained friends and continued to do activities together for many more years. We all did special Olympics, Discovery, and many birthdays parties. Not only were our special needs children friends, but the parents became close friends with a connection that only a group like this can understand. I love this family and my heart hurts for them. I will always remember Jeff’s sweet smile, his fascination and love of the police and fire department, and his antics in his younger days!! We love you and will miss you, Jeff and will see you again some day!!

“ I will never forget how you always smiled, no matter what. You were able to find peace and contentment despite of your circumstance. You showed me how to be happy through the storms. We will see each other again when the Lord brings me home brother.
