“ What a sweetie, that smile was always so genuine and real. You were always so brave and compassionate...you will forever be missed and we were so lucky to have had you in our lives ever so briefly. One of my all time favorite stories as a swim coach was of Jenae's dedication and love for the Colt swimmers!!!

“ I still remember the first time you came rolling up to the counter at the Southside MCD. Pushed by your dad in one of those old brown high chairs, all smiles and curly hair. Beautiful inside & out.
