“ Sure do miss you Pop. Things really hard in my life now and I try to hold on to what you would tell me. Dont know how this would help anything but, maybe. I wish I could just sit with you for a minute and just talk. My kids all have their own lives and families. We talk about memories of you and good times. I hope you knew how much you were loved by so many. Your watch til I get there. Semper Fi.”

“ Mary and family, we have talked over the last 2 days about the loss of my nephew. I want to say that you and your family was just what Jerry was all about, love, life, laughter but most of all love of family. I will always remember when he was growing up how much i learned to love him. Everyone will say he is now in a better place and he can watch over his family, we all wish he was here and it hurts that we don't have him but we have him forever in our heart and we will always love him and you.. God Bless you all.He is now with his father, my brother and his grandfather, and grandmother.

“ Uncle Bubba...The world truly lost a great man Sunday. My love goes out to the Young family. Bubba, I really hope I get to see you again one day, you truly reflected what the definition is to be a man. Your love of life, family, and God defined you like nobody else I have met. I love you.. gone but never forgotten.

“ Jerry always treated me like a daughter, not a daughter-in-law from the day Jack & I got married. I will never be able to express how much I admired his family values, strength, trust in God and trust in mankind. He usually believed in You before you had a chance to believe in yourself. I loved his humor and his ability to always know the right thing to say or if it was better not to say anything at all. Thank you Jerry for introducing me to Jack, and welcoming me into your family which is your life. Thank you for teaching Jack how to be a loving husband and father by leading by example. Until we meet in again in Heaven, I love you.

“ I miss you jerry you taught me alot about responsibilities and how to be a real man not like the rest of the punks than ran around our neighborhood and you were the only real father figure I ever had in my life

“ I cannot say, and I will not say That he is dead. He is just away. With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand, He has wandered into an unknown land And left us dreaming how very fair It needs must be, since he lingers there. And you—oh you, who the wildest yearn For an old-time step, and the glad return, Think of him faring on, as dear In the love of There as the love of Here. Think of him still as the same. I say, He is not dead—he is just away.” ? James Whitcomb Riley

“ The world was robbed of the greatest most selfless person anyone has ever met, Bubba was not only a father figure to me but any child he came in contact with. He changed everyone's life who had the pleasure of meeting him. I love you Bubba and thank you for showing me what a man is. I'll never forget you. Semper Fi.

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Jerry's (my cousin's) passing. He had a wonderful personality and had a great love of children like his dad. Thank you for your time in the military. I will always remember your laugh and your love of your family and God. I am blessed to have my only child named after you. Love always,
Donna
