“ Over six years late but I still wanted to stop in and share a memory. I recently moved back to Pine Bluff and have had a flood of memories come back to me over the past few months. I always called Joan "Mrs. Joe" when she would babysit me throughout the week before I started school. Some of my earliest memories were at their houses off of Starlight Drive and Riverside Road. I also remember her always taking me to Walmart with her when she would need to go get a few things.

I wish I had more awareness and would have reached out many years sooner. Prayers for you all!
