“ John was one in millions. I met him about 7 years ago and recently enjoyed our trip to Slater, MO with Gizmo and the great conversations we had on the hot shot trip. John was always generous with his time and advice as we discussed the mechanical world and life in general over the years. Rest in Peace John. Godspeed

“ So sorry to hear about my ham buddy. We talked often on the radio, and visited occasionally. He was always a 'live wire" on the radio and I enjoyed our many discussions over the years. My sincere condolence to wife Rhonda and the rest of his large family.I am alerting the other hams in our group of his passing. We will all miss him...

“ With heartfelt sympathy and hope and wishes for a life lived well. May your family rejoice in the memories of John and his great personality. I knew him from work and he was a nice, hard working gentleman. Look to God for strength during this time. Always cherish the good times and laughter because his memory lives on inside you as his family and friends. May God provide all you need.
