“ Jon and I spent time at Sante Center for Healing. He loved the Big Book. One of the last memories I have of him was of us sharing one of our favorite parts of this book we both treasure so much.

“And acceptance is the answer to all my problems today. When I am disturbed, it is because I find some person, place, thing or situation – some fact of my life – unacceptable to me, and I can find no serenity until I accept that person, place, thing or situation as being exactly the way it is supposed to be at this moment.

“Nothing, absolutely nothing happens in God’s world by mistake. Until I could accept my alcoholism, I could not stay sober; unless I accept life completely on life’s terms, I cannot be happy. I need to concentrate not so much on what needs to be changed in the world as on what needs to be changed in me and in my attitudes.”

— Paul O, Alcoholics Anonymous, p. 417, Big Book, 4th edition

I miss him already and wish his family enormous peace during this difficult time.

*Sincerely,
Christie O'Neill*
