

Judith Darlene Whaley-Weiszbrod

September 20, 1947 - April 12, 2024

Judith Darlene Whaley-Weiszbrod passed away on Friday, April 12th, 2024, at 76 years old, of natural causes. Judith was born on September 20th, 1947, to Herman Kornfeind and Marilou Whaley, in Chicago, Illinois. After she graduated from Fort Worth Technical High School in 1965, she went on to study psychology at UNT. In 2001, she married Daniel Weiszbrod from Greenville, Texas.

Most of Judith's career was spent in food service, however she spent her remaining years working as a substitute teacher for Greenville ISD. Her hobbies included reading, writing, listening to music, working outside, and spending time with her grandchildren.

Judith is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Heather and Jason Esteves, and grandchildren, Aurora and Oliver of Denton, TX.

Judith was predeceased by her parents and her husband.

A funeral service will be held at Slay Memorial Funeral Center on Monday, April 22, 2024, at 10:00AM with Chaplin George of Heart-to-Heart Hospice officiating.

Online condolences may be shared at www.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com.

Arrangements are under the direction of Terri Slay and Slay Memorial Funeral Center.

“ When Chaplain George said at my mom's service that she was thinking of us and wanted him to pray for her family, when he visited her, it melted my heart and made me miss her even more. Love to you always Mom.

Love, Heather.
