“ June and I attended the same Church, Macedonia SDA, in JAMAICA. I got baptized in 1980 at age 13 (now you can calculate my age). Therefore, I have known June and Ian for 39 years. Both she and Ian were exemplary Christians and served as a role model for as I grew up. June was a straight shooter. No beating around the bush or hypocrisy. She would tell you as it was. That trait I came to appreciate because you knew she was real. Carl and I were getting married and I asked Ian to be my give away father. I already selected the flower girl when June said, Tiffany will be your flower girl as well Of course, I love both girls and so I had 2 flower girls at my wedding. She was also a very kind person and did not hesitate to help. My mother recalled how June helped my sister to get enrolled in HEART Academy in Jamaica and went the extra mile to make it happen. We are deeply saddened by her passing but is hopeful to see her again in the Kingdom. My deepest condolences to Ian and family.
