“ Karin had a heart of gold, a grand sense of humor, a love for children, a sharp intellect & wit, a deep faith in Christ, a clear notion of justice, and a keen understanding of human nature. It was a pleasure to work with her at a school where she always "came as a servant". She treated the students as if they were her own. How fortunate were her husband, Steve, her the school kids and her own children and grandchildren. May God grant her a well deserved eternal rest.

“ Going fishing at Burnham Park, playing baseball, and to this day I cannot eat canned spaghetti because my sister told me it's made from worms. We may not be there but you're in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Karin an I grew up together we were very close like sisters, walked to school everyday an church on Sunday. We did everything together, cheerleading on St Margarets CYO. Saturday's always spent up town together an go see her father where he was store manager. Always ate lunch at Kresgres or Woolworths almost every Saturday. We were always together, I have wonderful memories that we once shared, I hope she will R.I.P.
