“ Kevin, I don't know how to even start. You were like a big brother to Sal and me, we did so many things together over the last 27 years. We built barns, houses, rode horses, birthed baby goats, built fences, went to football, basketball games, concerts, hauled hay. You spent many many holidays with us, you were such a big part of our lives and now there is such a hole left in our hearts. We were so fortunate to be able to meet your family, George, Betty, Steve, Lynn, Greg and Claudia and learn a little about you as a kid growing up. You will always be in our hearts. Hay season will never be the same without you. We love you and miss you!

“ Kevin, you were a good friend. Sometimes you were funny, sometimes you were insightful, sometimes you were even a little ornery. But I always enjoyed visiting and being around you. You are missed. God speed.
